TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

Paris 29th—The excitement in all circles caused by the Anarchist attempts continues to be extraordinary. The police now arrest everyone whose mode of living or whose utterances afford cause for suspicion as to his sympathies with the Anarchis' cause. It is thought that the Anarchist, Kavachel, recently arrested, is one of the chief leaders of the terrible band. When interviewed by a reporter he declared that the object of the Anarchists is to strike terror into the judicial authorities, to influence them in the sentences they pass on the prisoners. He added that the Anarchists had enough dynamite to blow up all the official establishments in France.

St. Petersburg, 29th—A serious quarrel has arisen between the Czar and his brother the Grand Duke Vladimir in reference to the distribution of the Imperial fortune. Vladimir has thrown up all his appointments and says he will live abroad. The news of this quarrel has made a great impression in Court circles. Vladimir, besides being Colonel of the principal regiments of Russian militia, was also an aide-de-camp of the Emperor.

London, 29th—The Durham miners continue on strike.

A terrible fire in the Long Acre restaurant has resulted in the death of five persons.

On the Stock Exchange a heavy fall has taken place in the shares of the Bank of Hong Kong and Shanghai, owing to the news of the flight of a cashier with £10,000 stg.

Lisbon, 29th—It is announced to-day that the coupons of the National Debt due on April 1st will be paid in Portuguese money, subject to a tax of thirty per cent.

Paris, 29th—The Senate passed a law to-day whereby the working hours for women in factories are limited to 12.

Berlin, 29th—A commercial treaty between Spain and Germany is being drawn up.

Madrid, 29th—A violent hurricane swept over the city yesterday, causing serious damage in several places.

It is announced that a considerable quantity of dynamite has been stored in the arsenal at Malaga.

Sir Drummond Wolff, the new British Ambassador, was received to-day by the Queen-Regent.

Rome, 29th—The deficit this year is calculated to reach 13 million dollars.

Washington, 29th—An unpleasant impression has been caused here by Lord Salisbury's answer respecting the solution of the Behring Fisheries question. Lord Salisbury seems anxious to retard the renewal of the "modus vivendi" with the United States, with a view of obtaining advantage. It appears, however, that President Harrison is resolved to insist on a final solution and maintain the rights of the United States.

Vienna, 29th—Telegrams from St. Petersburg state that M. de Giers is suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

THE TRADE OF UNITED STATES.

THE MERCANTILE THEORY AGAIN EXPLODED.

The trade returns just published for U. States corresponding to the year 1891 offer an instructive lesson to the Argentine Republic, which may be summed up in a few words. The Mackinley Tariff was framed on the Mercantile theory of the 17th century, viz.:—

1st. That import trade is injurious to a country and ought to be kept down as much as possible.

2nd. That the excess of exports over imports comes back in specie, and in the same degree enriches a country.

The working of the new tariff in the U. States has, therefore, been a matter of considerable interest, and the result is seen as follows:—

	1890	1891
Imports.....	823,400,000	828,300,000
Exports.....	857,500,000	970,500,000
Surplus exports	34,100,000	142,200,000

The trade of 1891 is the largest on record, and the MacKinley tariff has failed to cut down imports, which on the contrary shew an increase of 5,000,000$ over the preceding year. At the same time there has been a prodigious increase of exports, say 113,000,000$, but it is difficult to see what connection there can be between this branch of trade and the new tariff, which was wholly directed against imports.

The U. States population increases by 1,500,000 souls yearly and its productive powers are in active development. The grain crops of 1891 were the largest on record, and have helped materially to swell the exports. Nevertheless the ratio of exports to population is small compared with G. Britain, viz:—

U. States....	970,000,000 =	15$
U. Kingdom.	1,236,000,000 =	34$

We may, therefore, conclude that many years must elapse before the American export trade can vie in importance with that of the Mother Country.

Meantime the principal object of the MacKinley tariff, to get back in the form of specie the difference between imports and exports, has been wholly defeated. The current of bullion in 1891 was as follows:—

Bullion imported.....	63,200,000
" exported.....	106,300,000
Outflow from U. States.....	43,100,000

So that, according to the Mercantile theory, the United States is poorer by 43,000,000$ than it was in 1890, notwithstanding the enormous amount of exports.

Our local economists, that is the bankers and merchants of Buenos Ayres, will naturally ask themselves how is this? How is it that the U. States did not get back bullion from Europe to the sum of 142,000,000$, the surplus value of exports over imports? How is it that, on the contrary, the shipments of specie were 43,000,000$ in excess of receipts?

The answer is very simple, as Adam Smith explained 150 years ago, that the current of trade and that of specie have no perceptible relation. In other words, the Mercantile theory regarding balance of trade is a delusion.

Argentines would do well to study the foregoing figures, and to burn their false gods. No country is enriched by what goes out of it, but rather by what comes in. The true policy of an enlightened statesman is to remove whatever obstacles impede imports, and to leave the currents of trade to find their own level.

You may increase the exports of a country without increasing its wealth or without getting back an equivalent in specie, as we see in last year's trade of the United States. But you cannot have an increase of imports without a corresponding increase of wealth, for the articles so imported remain in the country. If the imports be excessive in relation to the needs or paying capability of the country, the evil will soon correct itself, for commerce, like water, will always find its level. Experience shews the truth of this axiom, whether north or south of the Equator.

THE PLAGUE AT RIO.

We have repeatedly cautioned all Englishmen in the River Plate against going to Rio Janeyro during the prevailing epidemic, which is particularly deadly to foreigners. Although the official returns put down the deaths from Yellow Fever at 50 daily we know as a fact that they may be counted by hundreds. We received yesterday the following letter from a gentleman in this city, to whom it was written by a friend in Rio: —

Caixa 403
Rio Janeyro
21st March.

Dear Sir,

I have to relate to you a sad story about P. H. Evans, who to my great sorrow succumbed to Yellow Fever on the 17th inst. I nursed him through the illness, as we had been very friendly, my office being only a few yards from his. He had the fever in its worst form, and died after 8 hours' delirium, going off quietly in the end. Will you kindly notify his friends in Buenos Ayres.

I may add that one of the Bofills is dying of Yellow Fever: he was in the City Improvement Co. Mr. Hansen the Swede, and his wife, who came up from Buenos Ayres, both died of it, as also a man named Holet.

Yours very truly
H.

This letter is almost a counterpart of one that we published last July, also from an English engineer, who wrote to us as follows:—

"For Heaven's sake tell people in Buenos Ayres not to come to Rio Janeyro. I am one of 5 English civil engineers, who came here a month ago from the River Plate. Three of the party have since died of the plague, and the fourth is dying in this hotel in the next room to mine."

We should like to see the ports of Buenos Ayres and Montevideo closed against all vessels from Rio Janeyro or Santos. But, the public mind is engrossed by politics, and all questions of health or safety are postponed. Nor is the Government very much to be blamed when people are so utterly indifferent on this point. Do not passengers leave our port weekly for Europe, touching at Rio Janeyro?

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Another horrible affair. Telegrams received yesterday from Santiago del Estero report that an officer, a commissary and a policeman have been found murdered in a place called Capo. No details are given, but the bare fact is sufficiently appalling in itself without the additional horror of details. This triple murder in the persons of the representatives of authority ought to stimulate the police to undertake an active and energetic campaign against the bands of assassins and marauders who at present infest the provinces, and more particularly the frontier-settlements, which should be the best protected in the country. An unpleasant feature about these bands of murderers is that deserters from the army and the police have been known to join them. Not long ago, it transpired that the outrages in the frontier-settlements of Salta were perpetrated by men who had received Government pay to protect life and property. It is quite possible, therefore, that some deserter or ex-policeman is at the bottom of this triple murder, which may have been prompted by revenge, and not by mere desire to rob, which, as a rule, explains most of the provincial horrors we have been recording in this column for months past.

Another dreadful crime has been discovered on an island in the Paraná. On Thursday last week, a fisherman informed the Parana authorities that he had found a mutilated corpse on La Brava Island, which lies about six miles from the town. The Sub-Prefect, Mr. Moreno, immediately set out to make an inquiry, and the following particulars were brought to light: The two brothers Ledesma, who were in the habit of going to the island in question in search of fuel, had left the week before for the island in their respective boats. Neither of them had returned. On Wednesday the settlers on the island remarked the disappearance of the brothers. On Thursday a corpse was discovered. The body was full of wounds. It was supposed to be that of one of the brothers. The other brother could not be found, and it is conjectured that he murdered his brother.

Diphtheria continues to ravage Mendoza, and the municipal authorities are at their wits' end to devise some means of stemming the epidemic. We are inclined to think that the germs of the disease are to be found in the "acequias," which possibly have been polluted with sewage.

Our Rosario contemporaries are still harping on the Governor's rumored resignation. It is stated that the note tendering the resignation is now in the hands of the Legislature. This body was to meet in extraordinary session yesterday. The official organs in Santa Fe have not so far contradicted the rumors of the Governor's resignation.

BREAD-RIOTS AT BERLIN.

A great meeting of unemployed was held in one of the large beerhouses in the south of Berlin. A report was made to the meeting of the refusal of the Burgomaster of Berlin to receive a deputation which had asked for work for masons' labourers. Various speakers warned the meeting against making a demonstration in the streets, and one reminded them of the saying of a Prussian Minister, "A gun shoots and a sabre cuts." Another speaker referred to the Emperor's speech of the previous night, and said the workmen had no intention of emigrating. They would leave that to others, for whom the time would come. A Socialist resolution was afterwards adopted, concluding with the practical demand that in view of the prevailing distress the municipal and State authorities should see that the contemplated new public buildings were begun as soon as possible. The meeting separated with cheers for Social Democracy.

Straggling companies of the unemployed subsequently paraded the streets, and collected about 1,000 strong at the crossing of Friendrichstrasse and Unter den Linden. Cries were raised—"To the Castle," "Let us go to the Emperor," "The Emperor must see us," "Give us bread," "Give us work." At this juncture the Castle guard was about to be relieved, and the demonstrators and numerous idlers and workmen formed a procession in rear of the soldiers and marched down Unter den Linden singing the "Workmen's Marseillaise." Telephonic communications from the Castle had summoned a strong force of police, under the command of numerous officers, and the mob was warned to disperse. On their refusal the police drew their swords and charged. The mob retaliated by attacking the police with sticks and with the heavy house keys which every Berliner carries about his person. The police, who exercised great self-restraint, confined themselves to inflicting blows with the flat of their sabres. Nevertheless, numbers of persons were wounded on both sides, until the police entirely gained the upper hand, and proceeded to make numerous arrests. The prisoners, who included several women, were conducted to the central police-station. Several of them have already been set at liberty, but, as there is no doubt that the demonstration had been carefully planned, any ring-leaders who have been captured will probably be severely dealt with. The Emperor is reported to have witnessed the procession from the windows of the Castle.

A late telegram from Renter states that at about six o'clock fresh disturbances broke out in the Koepnik and Frankfurter quarters of Berlin. The unemployed gangs of several hundred stormed a number of butchers' and bakers' shops, breaking the windows and laying hands upon anything they could seize. Numerous conflicts occurred with the police, who repeatedly charged, striking the rioters with the flat of their swords. It was not until ten o'clock that the mob were finally dispersed and order restored.

Telegraphing at noon Reuter says:—The Socialistic disturbances yesterday were far from ending with the demonstration before the Palace. At half-past four o'clock, a body of men, 400 strong, appeared in the Unter den-Linden-avenue, carrying on a pole a red cloth. They marched down the Charlottenstrasse and the Zimmer Strasse to the large central square called the Spital Market, and thence round to the Palace; here the band was cut in two by the police and driven back. But at five o'clock the same men again collected, this time in the new market, and were once more dispersed by the police.

The situation (continues the telegram) was more serious in the other quarters of the city. In the Weissenburg-strasse parties of men in working clothes rushed through the streets displaying a red flag, and broke into a public-house which they looted and wrecked. The police were hardly prepared for the emergency of disturbances breaking out in different parts of the city at the same time, and instructions by telegraph were continually passing between the various police stations and the central bureau or præsidium.

The Burgomaster of Vienna, Dr. Prix, has arranged for the distribution of one thousand florins among the poor of Vienna. At the office of the Socialist paper, the Volkspresse, bread was again given away to a multitude of necessitous people on Thursday. The thoroughfare was thronged with expectant crowds, who stopped the traffic completely for the time being. This gave rise to such complaints that the publisher of the Volkspresse received a telegraphic summons to the headquarters of the police, where he was informed that the noisy scenes in the streets must be discontinued forthwith. The publisher replied that he had no other place at his disposal for the distribution of bread than the office of the newspaper. The police authorities accordingly consented to permit the use of the parish house in the Neubor-Gasse, near the office, for the required purpose. There, with the aid of several policemen, the distribution was continued, and was speedily finished. Six hundred large loaves, which had been collected in two waggons from all the bakers' shops in the western divisions, were given away. When it was over many hungry people were still waiting for the promised bread, and lingered about the parish house until night set in. Yesterday while the editor and a Socialist comrade were collecting bread in a waggon from the bakeries in the Hoch-Strasse of Hernals the police took them into custody for not having obtained permission so to do. Quantities of clothing and a large sum of money have been sent anonymously to the office of the newspaper.

The sitting of the City Fathers on Monday was all taken up by four Messages from the Lord Mayor, three of them in the old Major key, asking for more money. The Papas broke up rather early, 6 p.m. They generally talk till after 7 o'clock.

THE PARAGUAYAN CHACO.

REPORT ON THE QUALITY AND FEATURES OF THE LAND IN THE VICINITY OF LOT NR. 149.

Concepcion, March, 5th. 1892.

Some years ago, when lot Nr. 149 in the Paraguayan Chaco was surveyed and divided into 100 lots of 1 square league each, it was not known that a very important and deep river runs close to the southern border of the lot Nr. 149. This is the Montelindo river, which very likely comes from Bolivia and falls into the river Paraguay some leagues to the North of the mouth of the wellknown river Pejuy. Having lately been explored, it is now perfectly well known, that the Montelindo river has got a deep channel throughout the length of 30 leagues from the mouth in a straight westerly line, this channel varying from 18 feet to 9 feet depth at low water: that it has got barrancas of 3 to 4 metres at low water, and that it never runs dry. But it has got so many bends, and abrupt bends, and it is so filled up with old rotten trees and fresh palms that at the present time it could not very well be used for floating timber down, unless cleared of these obstructions first. The circumstance that this river exists enhances very much the value of lot Nr. 149; some day the Montelindo will be the natural highway to that region of the Central Paraguay Chaco, and make it easy to cut, transport and sell the timber from those rich hard-wood forests, with which the lot Nr. 149 is covered: at the present time there is not a single white man living in or in the vicinity of lot 149, there is no establishment in the Chaco to the west of the Estancia which I have at work and in hand, and situated in the Chaco at the height of Villa Concepcion. Those gentlemen who want to cultivate their camps in the lot Nr. 149 would therefore do well to take note of my experience and follow the rules for cultivation in the Chaco which I here propose. For any new beginner there is only one paying business in the Chaco to begin with, and that is the cattle business. Cattle thrive excellently in the Chaco and they dont want much looking after, which is the chief point, since it is so very difficult to get Paraguayanlabourers and peones to go into the Chaco. Paraguayans as a rule are frightened of losing themselves, of the tigers, of the Indians, of the snakes, of the loneliness, of want of food and water, in fact of everything, and it is difficult to engage good peones for the Chaco. Therefore it is necesary to commence with a cattle estancia. I reckon upon an increase of 70 calves per year for each 100 cows, I have got, and both cows, bulls, novillos and terneros are as fat and have always been as fat as I have not seen cattle in other parts of Paraguay. I have had very few deaths amongst my cattle, some 5 or 6 head: one animal was struck down by lightning, 3 have been bitten by snakes, 2 died in the camp without any apparent cause. The Indians in this part of the Chaco are very tame and good, and I have never had any quarrel with any of them. No Indian ever tried to do me or the cattle the slightest injury, in fact they are rather afraid of coming near the cattle. Tigers I have never seen in the Chaco, nor have I ever heard of any one else having seen a tiger hereabout. A cattle estancia can not be established, without bringing plenty of horses and mares, and my experience goes to show that horses only thrive in the Chaco after being well accustomed for years to the climate, the grass, the water. I brought 50 horses and mares to the Chaco: of these, 25 have died within 2 years, but the rest are as fat, lively and in so good a general condition, that I am in hopes that now they are accustumed to the Chaco and will hold out for years to come.

The open land about here is not suitable for agriculture, for the soil is too clayey; in order to raise crops it is necessary to clear the forest land first. Several gentlemen have inquired whether it would be well to go to the expense of taking judicial possession of their camp, before starting an establishment on their property. It is my advice not to do anything of the kind, but to save the money and employ it to buy so many more head of cattle, with which to go out more or less to the property in question, and squat down at any place that seems convenient.

Houses which are built in the Chaco are of so little value, that they may be pulled down again at any time without loss, if it should be found out that the owner of it is not on his own camp; but for twenty years to come it is not very likely that there will be any question of limits between the occupants of lot No. 149, and it is much better that owners of camp in the Chaco should be incited to occupy with cattle any place they like than see them stay away on account of not being able to find their particular camp. Leisure time can always be employed with benefit, going out shooting and collecting deer skins, which now are at a high price.

It will be a benefit for the Chaco that Government appointed lately Mr. Grubb, of the South American mission, to be Comandante of the Chaco, to keep order.

Mr. Grubb accompanied me in my last exploration of the river Montelindo and he penetrated with me into the lot No. 149, where we took observations.

He knows most of the Indians, and his presence will give much support to those gentlemen who will settle down in lot No. 149; in fact, it will now be easier than before to go out to the Chaco camp. The first thing to be done by Mr. Grubb and my exertions will be to establish a cartroad due West from here to the "toldo" Guazu, so that travellers can keep this road and know where to find support. This being done, I can trustfully invite any one of the owners of lot No. 149 to come here, where they will find saddle horses and support, and take a look at their property in the Chaco before they determine to settle down.

P. A, Freund.

MEAT-SUPPLY OF G. BRITAIN.

(From the "Devon Gazette.")

The author of the "Balance Sheet of the World," some time ago wrote a pamphlet, in which he dwelt upon the great importance of the sheep-farming industry. He began by stating that the energy and success of the New Zealand Colonists could not be more strikingly displayed than in the fact that their frozen sheep are in such excellent condition as to astonish the butchers in Leadenhall Market. In considering this meat question, he states that the normal increase of population in the United Kingdom, in spite of emigration, is about 1,000 souls daily, while there is no increase in live stock within its boundaries. During the last 14 years six or seven millions have been added to the population, while during the same period the live stock has decreased. He gives statistics which lead him to the expectation that the United Kingdom in 1896 will have a population of 42 or 43 millions, and will produce only as much meat as will feed its inhabitants for five months in the year. "Our importation," he adds, "will exceed a million tons yearly, the bulk of which must come from the Australian Colonies." He demolishes the theory that the consumption of meat per inhabitant must decline in the United Kingdom as the price advances. He proves by statistics that the rise of prices goes hand-in-hand with an increase of consumption, and that the relative consumption has kept pace with the increase of wealth, which increase has been prodigious in Great Britain for the last ten or fifteen years, and bids fair to continue. He points out the vital importance, under such circumstances, of new and sufficient sources of meat-supply to this country. Mr. Mulhall next, in connexion with this question, notices the subject of sheep-farming in New Zealand. He states that a quarter of a century ago New Zealand had fewer sheep then Lincolnshire, and that in 15 or 20 years more she will have more than Great Britain, if the flocks increase even slowly. Not only have the flocks multiplied ninefold in 21 years, but the weight of fleece has doubled, and the export of wool averages 5s. per sheep. But the great superiority of New Zealand sheep is in weight of carcase, some of the frozen flock ranging from 140lbs. to 170lbs. If the business of shipping to this country frozen sheep be successfully followed up, our Colonists in New Zealand can, without reducing their stock or infringing on its procreative power, send us about 100,000 sheep monthly—say 30,000 tons of meat per annum, or 5 per cent. of the deficit that Great Britain must cover by importation from abroad The capacity of New Zealand for sheep-raising is, apparently, eight times greater than the actual amount of its flocks, or area occupied.

WARSHIPS FOR CHILI.

Representatives of the Chilian Government are reported to be in treaty for the purchase of a protected cruiser of 3,500 tons displacement, which is being completed at the yard of Sir W. G. Armstrong, Mitchell and Co., Limited, on the Tyne. The vessel is 330 feet long, 41 feet broad, and will have a draught of 16 feet 6 inches. She is built of steel and has a protective deck varying in thickness from 11 inch on the top to 4½ inches on the slopes, and the conning tower armoured with 3 inches of steel. The armament consists of four 6 inch quick-firing, eight 47-inch quick firing, fourteen 3-pounder quick-firing, twelve 1-pounder quick-firing guns, and six torpedo tubes. She is thus very similar to the Argentine cruiser 25 de Mayo, which was launched at Elswick in 1890. For the Chilian Government there are also being completed in France the ironclad Arturo Prat and the protected cruiser Presidente Pinto. The former is a steel twin-screw vessel of 9,000 tons displacement, 328 feet long, and 60 feet 8 inches broad, with engines of 12,000 indicated horse-power, and an anticipated speed with natural draught of 17 knots. She has complete steel belt armour, varying from 8 inches to 11 inches thick, 4 in. armour on the central redoubt, and 4 inches armour on each of her four barbettes. These are disposed—one forward, one aft, and one on each beam just abaft the after funnel, and each contains a 9·4-inch breech-loading gun. Forward of the stern barbette there are two light turrets, and abaft the bow barbette two more. In each of these are a pair of 4·7-inch quick-firing guns. There are also several smaller quick-firing guns. The vessel was launched at la Seyne, near Toulon, on December 20, 1890. The Presidente Pinto, also built at La Seyne, was launched in September, 1890, and is a protected cruiser of 2,080 tons displacement, and about 17·5 knots speed. She carries four 5·9-inch quick-firing guns, two 4·7-inch quick-firing, four smaller quick-firing guns, six machine guns, and three torpedo tubes. A sister ship, the Presidente Errazuriz, has already been completed and delivered to Chili.—S. A. Journal.

THE ASSASSINS OF RAMALLO.

Ramallo, March 28th.

Mr. Editor,

I note your account of the triple murder here some days ago. You are wrong, however, in saying that the principal murderer is caught; he is not, but is living at his ease in the islands. This is the second triple murder of which he is the author within three months, as at the end of December last he murdered in company with one of his brothers a family named Barrera, a man and his wife and grown up daughter. How many more he will commit before the authorities take him and perhaps imprison him for three or four years one can't say. To shew you how criminals are manufactured here I will give you Calderon's history: His father had four daughters, with three of whom he had incestuous intercourse, the result being this Calderon and two brothers, one in prison for murder the other on outlaw in the south of the province. The father finally murdered his wife and two of his daughters because they resisted his corrupting the youngest, and afterwards cut his own throat in prison. What can you expect of people brought up in this way? The family used to shear at the estancias round here, but, though well known to all the life they led, I never heard of them being shunned by the other peons. The Comisarios have orders to win elections at any cost, but they may take their own course with murderers and robbers, and their own course in those matters is generally to sit at home and send telegrams to other Comisarios also sitting quietly at home. The islands of the Paraná are full of banditti, witness the late attack on the Alvear quinta, near Rosario, but no measures are taken, though the Government has any quantity of small steamers suitable to do police duty.

Yours truly,
Ramallero.

BARON HIRSCH'S JEWS.

A deputation of the Jewish settlers have published the following letter in the Nación:—

Mr. Editor,

In your "agricultural column" of the 24th inst. we find an extract from a letter written by Baron Hirsch to his representative here stating that through the unpardonable negligence of his agents, several hundreds of useless Jews have been sent to B. Ayres. He adds that "when a mistake has been made, there is no use persisting in it. It must be corrected radically." He is of opinion that these Jews should be sent back to Europe where they may serve as a lesson to those who, useless for work, imagine that the Argentine Republic is a paradise. It is quite evident that the letter is an answer to another sent from here, and this is the motive of our protest. In order to shew you the bad faith of the person who wrote to Baron Hirsch, suffice it to state that of the two Jewish Colonies, Mauricio and Moises-Ville, the first is ten months in existence and yet so far the colonists have been unable to obtain their lands. They have not even received ploughs. The settlers have been huddled together in miserable tents exposed to sun and rain, without an effort being made to give them work. We have repeatedly asked to be placed in a position to work, but in vain. Dr. Pedro Palacios, Mr. Jose Rodriguez, Judge Diego Gonzalez, and Mr. Farico, of Nueve de Julio, and the landowners near the two Colonies can tell you how many of us worked during the harvest as peones, and Messrs. Carlsen and Shultz, of Belgrano, can tell you how many of us were engaged in building in Moises-Ville. None therefore can say that we are useless for work unless someone interested in making such an assertion. We expected things would change and that we should be allowed to abandon this forced inactivity. About two months ago Mr. Ch. E. Cullen visited our colony and gave the requisite instructions for enabling the settlers to begin work. Unfortunately Mr. Cullen fell sick and none of his instructions have been carried out. In the meantime we are still waiting. The Manager has thought it advisable to publish a letter containing gratuitous charges against us, but he has taken good care not to publish our frequent complaints.

We are convinced that the Baron's intentions are not those described, and we await the arrival of Col. Goldsmid, who we are convinced, will do us justice.

The delegates of the Moises-Ville Settlement:

Abraham Goldin
Wolof Chochet

RAILWAY ITEMS.

A most important report has been issued by the Attorney-General on the subject of the Railway-ticket tax decreed by the Province of Buenos Ayres. The Attorney-General takes up the protest of the Rosario Railway against this tax and shews that the decree of the Provincial Government affects not only the interests of the national railways and the jurisdiction of the National Government but also the interests of the inhabitants, natives and foreigners, of the country. He goes on to show that the Constitution and laws of the country give to the National Government authority to exercise an exclusive jurisdiction in railway matters. This jurisdiction therefore must not be encroached upon by provincial laws and decrees, as this decree of the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres tends to do. Furthermore the right of every inhabitant to go where he pleases in the country cannot, according to the constitution, be taxed.

We think that every sensible being in the country will say Hear! Hear! to these remarks of the Attorney-General, whose opinion on such matters is final. The railway ticket tax cannot therefore be levied. Government will now issue a decree which will prove a lesson and warning to the provinces.

Mr. Craik, manager of the Central Argentine Railway, asked the Government some time ago to appoint a committee of engineers to report on the causes of the inundation of the line and stoppage of traffic between kils. 247 and 251, 226 and 233, and 213 and 217. We note that Mr. Craik's application has been considered, but it appears he has applied to the wrong quarter, as the Board of Public Works state that he must apply to the Cordobese Government.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

It used to be "leaning on the loan." Now it is leaning on the election of Electors. Everybody has one eye on the Gold Eagle and the other on the Radical meeting next Sunday and the election that day week. Talk of people going mad from taxation: madness lies in politics also; and we remark that some of our readers who are trying to understand the political situation are getting a queer look in their eyes. Would that it was all over.

The permanent rumour of a revolution in Rio Grande was again flying about yesterday, but was not quite confirmed. People here take only a platonic interest in Rio Grande revolutions.

All lovers of good music will hear with pleasure of the high class concerts which are to commence in the month of April under the able direction of the celebrated violinist, Señor Hercules Galvani. The concerts are to take place in the Politeama and will consist of selections, overtures, symphonies etc. from the best masters, ancient and modern, varied at each performance by songs, instrumental solos, etc. interpreted by the best professors, and the orchestra will be the finest that can be got together in Buenos Ayres. In order to encourage patronage the price of subscription has been fixed at the very low figure of $24 for the eight concerts, and we have no doubt that our English community will hasten to avail themselves of the exceptional opportunity which is provided for them of enjoying a thorough musical treat.

At the general meeting of the B. A. C. C., held on Monday evening to elect a new governing body, the following was the result: President, R. Bridgett; Vice-president, J. C. Zimmerman; committee, R. Anderson, A. B. P. Boyd, G. Harker, J. Gifford, V. Ker-Seymer, A. Lace, D. J. Stokes. The club is much to be congratulated on the above selection, especially of their President and Vice-president.

Anybody going to Canada? If so, let him read and profit by the P.S.N. Co.'s enticing advertizement in another column.

Olmi's advertizement, in another column, of his gorgeous Eastern auction in Calle Bolivar fairly takes our breath away; and even with one of Mr. George Mackern's Ball-pointed pens in our right hand we cannot do the subject justice. The splendours of Ancient Babylon were shabby-genteel poverty compared with it.

That was a funny printer's error in our London Letter yesterday. "Mrs. Montagu was boiled for £700." If the case be proved against her, of torturing her fine little children, boiling is what she deserves, not bailing: at least most mothers will think so, though they might not like to say it.

The Anarchist telegrams from Europe are now the theme in all circles here and are commented on with thrilling interest. The French Chambers must hurry up with the Bill for depriving Anarchists of their heads without much ado, or Paris will be in ruins before they pass it. The terrible fire in Barcelona harbour is also, and probably rightly, laid at the door of the "fin de siecle" miscreants.

The harness or something of a daily-bread tram car from Flores gave way yesterday morning near Plaza Once and the horses bolted, leaving the car standing. The animals went away like greased lightning; and at full speed, heads down, tails up, manes erect and eyes blazing struck a big, four-wheeled cart. One of them dashed his brains out, the other escaped. It is thought the animals were drunk, having taken an extra strong bran cocktail before they left the station. The shock when they struck the cart was heard three squares off.

Cheers. The La Plata Government has decided to throw up the obnoxious railway tickets tax. This is the first victory the railway "gremio" has won for a long time, and it will cause grateful tears to flow in the Cannon Street Hotel and London Railway haunts generally. Rothschild will have "no doubt in his mind" that it will have a depressing influence on the gold premium.

Talking of Rothschild brings us in a step to Lidderdale junior, the gay and festive bank manager, whose sneaking proceedings are so ridiculously styled "a Romance" by our London colleagues. Ladies are good judges in all cases even remotely connected with matrimony, and they all say that the mean fellow means to desert his fiancée and marry the wealthy American widow, and that the whole thing was arranged between the precious pair. The girl has a good riddance of him. This sort of thing on the part of a member of such a staid and serious 'gremio' as bank managers is highly reprehensible, and should be a warning to girls. "Beware of widders, Samivel."

A decree has been issued by the B. O. Ministry of Foreign Affairs, recognising Mr. J. F. Hufnagle as Commercial Agent of the United States in Paysandu.

The Tribuna of Montevideo announces that the Special Committee of Engineers has given preference to the port scheme presented by the engineer Sr. Rigoni, which will accordingly be recommended to the Chambers.

Mr. Aristides Lestage has been allowed to get rid of his Centro Agricola white elephant on condition that he returns in full the Cedula loan he got on it and pays up all arrears. He will perhaps come out safe, considering the fall in Cedulas.

The new Bishop of Salta, the Very Revd. Dr. Padilla, will be consecrated on Sunday next in the Cathedral, by His Grace the Archbishop.

A North American exchange says:—"Europe cannot well go to war for a year, at any rate. A famous saying of the great Napoleon was that an army travelled on its stomach. There is not enough spare food in Europe this year to stiffen up the stomachs of the millions of armed men to the heavy marching point."

Dr. Benjamin Paz takes Dr. Luis Saenz Peña's vacant seat in the Supreme Federal Court.

The Volunteer National Guards have been warned not to go to political meetings in uniform: as if they attempt anything of the kind they will be drummed out. They are at liberty to go in mufti, if they choose.

A leading official of the German Army, conversing with a New York World correspondent recently at Berlin, said: "I know that Count Waldersee will be the leading strategist in the coming war. Von Moltke cut him out for that post, and the Emperor once referred to him in my hearing as Moltke's legacy to his emperor and his country. I understand that in case of war with Russia he will invade the Czar's empire by sea from Cronstadt, while the Emperor himself will conduct the army against the frontier."

An evening colleague says that the Romay Iron Mine has been sold for the tidy sum of $1,200,000 "curso shinplasteral."

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, March 29th.

The falling tendency of the gold market was very pronounced at an early hour this morning. The rumor that half a million sterling of Baron Hirsch's gold was being thrown on the market caused a bearish impression, in spite of the political croakers who maintain that politics are at sixes and sevens, and that the country is on the eve of a 'debacle.' As the day grew, the bearish impression of the morning faded away, and a firmer feeling was reflected in a rally in price. An important factor in the daily fluctuations of the premium is the impending settlement of the month's affairs; it is difficult to form an opinion of the relative positions of bears and bulls, but for the last two days the speculation has been favorable to the former, and this would lead one to suppose that the market has run 'long,' not 'short,' in gold this month.

About eighteen thousand ounces changed hands for cash at the first ring: the price opened at $55, weak, rose to 56.20, fell to 55.90, rose again to 56.40, and closed pretty firm at 56.20, say 245¼ o/o premium. There was a very active business in sovereigns: no fewer than eight thousand changed hands, the price opening at 17.42, rising to 17.50, and closing at 17.45, say 240¾ o/o premium. The proportions of the business in sovereigns were remarkable and confirmed the belief that gold was being banged away from some very strong quarters. Were it not for the bug-bear of politics the present supply of the precious metal would be strong enough to force down the premium to 200 o/o.

Patriotic Bonds were slightly more active to-day and prices were firmer. The closing rates were 60.30 for cash, 60.20 for to-morrow, and 59 for the end of April. La Plata Cedulas were steady. Five thousand shares of the National Bank changed hands at 20¼ and 20. Two hundred shares of the Spanish Bank were sold at 86, firm.

Exchange ruled firm; banking paper was quoted as high as 484d. and private paper up to 483d. on London.

Mr. Edward Casey was welcomed today on his arrival from Montevideo, where he reports much stagnation all round. Mr. Casey states that people in London connected with the River Plate watch with some anxiety the progress of political affairs here.

The results of the auction of stock belonging to Mr. F. Meeks on the Estancia La Mora, in Cañuelas, are a fresh proof of the heavy fall in price of stock. At the auction one thousand sheep, bred from splendid rams, were knocked down at $3.70 per head. A broker, a good authority in these matters, assures us that these sheep would have fetched $10 not long ago. Five thousand more sheep of excellent breed were sold at the rate of $3.40 per head. Sixty splendid 'novillos' were sold at $15 per head, next to nothing. Eight hundred cows were knocked down at $10 per head. Meantime, land in Cañuelas is in demand at the rate of $15 per square rent per annum: only 'tamberos' can afford to pay such heavy rent; the estanciero and sheepfarmer must move out further.

We take the following from our colleague Herald with regard to the question between Mr. C. H. Sanford and the International Bank in London:—"One of our contemporaries announced that Mr. Sanford had been made bankrupt in London, but such is not the case. It appears that Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co. owe the International Bank in London £75,000, and that the Bank refused to assent to an arrangement for transferring the assets of the firm to a limited liability company which is to issue debentures to the creditors, an arrangement accepted by all the other creditors. The International Bank, however, commenced proceedings in Bankruptcy against Mr. Sanford personally and therefore he presented a petition for the liquidation of his estate by the Court, and a Receiver was appointed to take charge of the same. Some correspondence respecting the matter was published in the Times. Messrs

The Banco de la Nacion Argentina has opened a branch in Tandil and has appointed Mr. Julian Solveyra, the well-known Bolsa broker, manager. The Board have created another branch in Cañada de Gomez to take over the old National Bank branch and have appointed Messrs E. James, R. Long and J. Voss, as "Consejeros Titulares." The appointment of these gentlemen gives universal satisfaction as they are well known, and highly respected by Argentines and foreigners alike in that district. The Board of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina discounted $400,000 yesterday.

Mr. Charles Lix Klett has received the following very flattering note in connection with his appointment on the Argentine Committee for the World's Columbian Exhibition at Chicago:—

World's Columbian Exposition,
Latin-American Department,
William E. Curtis (in charge),
2 Lafayette Square,
Washington, D.C.,
January 23, 1892.

Señor Carlos Lix-Klett,
Exposition Commissioner,
Buenos Ayres,
Argentine Republic.

Dear Sir,

I have read with much interest and pleasure the decree appointing you a Commissioner for the Argentine Republic in connection with the Chicago Exposition. Your name is so well known in this country, through your writings, that your appointment will be received by the people of the United States as an assurance that your country will be represented at Chicago in a manner commensurate with her importance.

I beg that you will consider me entirely at your service, and that you will call upon me for any information or assistance that it may be in my power to render you.

With sincere wishes that your task may prove both pleasant and successful, I remain, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,
William E. Curtis.

The Colonial Wool Sales in London began to-day. Four hundred thousand bales of wool will be offered for sale. Telegrams were anxiously expected to-day with the opening prices, but up to a late hour no advices were received. It is calculated that there is still in this market a stock of 125,000 bales for export. Up to the present 225,000 bales more or less have been exported.

The gold market ruled very firm at the second ring; six thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow; the price opened at $56.40 rose to $56.70, and closed at $56.60, say 247⅞% premium. Sovereigns opened at $17.55, rose to $17.60, and closed at $17.58, say 248⅜% premium. Cedulas were slightly weaker.

The Minister of Finance gave orders to-day that the La Platense steamer Mercurio call at San Blas, to receive passengers and load cargo there, on her return trip from Patagones.

Art. 1. All those companies that come under the provisions of the Bounty Law No. 2402 of 9th November 1888 are hereby authorized to export free of duty the products of animals slaughtered and turned into preserved meats by modern appliances, excepted, however, jerked beef, which shall pay the respective duties.

Art. 2. The companies under the law shall prove to satisfaction that the products which they export are preserved meats manufactured with modern appliances.

Art. 3. Let this be communicated.
E. Hansen.

Mr. Henry L. Green has opened agencies of the Royal Mail Steamship Company in Valparaiso and Santiago. The Valparaiso agency is in charge of Messrs Balfour, Williamson and Company and of Messrs Armstrong and Company. Mr. Carlos Rodger is in charge in Santiago. The trip from Valparaiso to Buenos Ayres can now be made in four days and a few hours, nearly all the journey in railway, excepting 16 hours on mule-back. The day is near when the iron rails will stretch from ocean to ocean.

The R. M. S. Tagus will leave to-morrow with a few passengers and the following cargo:

450 cases tongues
1000 bales of beef.

She will fill up with coffee at Santos for Rotterdam.

The R. M. S. Clyde arrived at Rio yesterday morning and will probably leave that port to-morrow for the Plate. Among her passengers in Col. Goldsmid, head agent for Baron Hirsch.

The returns of the Custom House to-day amounted to

CHARLES OLMI
GRANDIOSE
Auction

Of Art Treasures! A veritable Exhibition! An incomparable Show of Tapestry, Carpets and Smyrna curtains and woven articles. A Regal Residence! Admirable original paintings, truly artistic, by Caprile, Bertoletti, Pastiglioni, De Martino, Lancerotto, Michetti, Graner, Cusachs, and Dalbano, some of which obtained first prizes at the Barcelona Exhibition in 1888.

Incomparable original Bronzes by Barbella and others. I declare, without hesitation, that nothing better as works of art has ever been offered for sale in this city. Superb Persian tapestries. Costly stuffs from the far East. Regal Smyrna carpets and curtains in every part of the house. Splendid Eastern door hangings. Regal chandeliers. Magnificent piano. Large Venetian mirrors. Costly Boule and inlaid furniture. Imposing Oriental drawing room. The study is simply unique, in this or any other country. Library of select works. Louis Quetorze drawing-room. Regal Certosino vestibule. Splendid Henri Deux dining-room. Grand Bedroom in the style of Louis XVI—three rooms thrown into one. Another for one person. Billiard room. Work-baskets, works of art and all the other valuable household belongings of a Spanish gentleman living at 884 Calle Bolivar, between Independencia and Estados Unidos.

People of taste should take advantage of this truly regal auction. It is a sheer impossibility to describe the masterpieces that are about to be sold; but connoisseurs can visit the house, certain to find therein textiles and original bronzes unapproachable as works of art. As for the gorgeous furniture and invaluable Eastern curtains, carpets, tapestry and textiles generally, suffice it to say that the former was made in Paris by the old firm of Krieger and Dienst, and the latter in Smyrna, to a private order.

I call the special attention of connoisseurs to the valuable Gobelin, hand woven tapestries, known by the names of Kelims, Kasaks and Kamaluks, in the gorgeous Oriental drawing-room, which cost a fortune, the style and decoration of the room being a fac-simile of the aristocratic saloons of Constantinople. As for the rest, the luxury and perfect taste apparent throughout the house are above all praise. Every article in it rivals another in value. This truly splendid house must command the attention of all, as it is absolutely exceptional.

On Tuesday April 5th

at noon, I will sell at public auction for account of and by order from the owner, the above valuable collection of household furniture, complete details of which will be found in the SPECIAL CATALOGUES which can be obtained at the house itself or in my mart at 563 Calle Piedad, on the morning of Thursday, 31st inst. From that day the house will be open every day for inspection, from 10 a.m. till 11 p.m., that is for five clear days before the auction, in order that those interested may have time to carefully examine and impress on their minds the excellence of the Gobelin tapestry, and genuine curtains and carpets from Smyrna, the costly make of the furniture, and the exceptional artistic value of the paintings and bronzes.

LA MAGNOLIA
INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

GUARANTEED PURE.

At the Estancia Grande, the property of GEORGE BELL, there are always on Sale Clydesdale and Cleveland Stallions, Durham Bulls, and Lincoln Rams, also Potros suitable for carriages and heavy draught.

As all animals offered for sale at this Estancia are by stallions, bulls, etc., imported direct from England by the owner, it would therefore be advantageous for intending purchasers to inspect the same before purchasing elsewhere.
Nearest Station (under a league from the Estancia) EMPALME PEREIRA F.C. a La Plata from whence animals can be despatched to any part of the Republic.
Animals of the same breeds are obtainable at the Estancia La Favorita. Apply to the Mayodomo, Almacen La Suiza, Carrera Tandil a Necochea, or to Hotel Dhees, Tandil; also at Estancia Santa Catalina. Apply Mayordomo, San Jose de la Esquina, F.C.O.S. Rosario.
